Skills Profile

Communication and Team Work

My written and verbal communication skills are of a high standard. I can present ideas in a relevant and concise manner when interacting with clients. Before the pandemic, I helped to run numerous creative workshops for community organisations, and still work on collaborative charity zines on a regular basis.

Initiative, Motivation and Ambition

I am a self-motivated individual able to work independently for long hours. Many of my projects are ambitious and go beyond the brief. I am a resourceful and innovative person who enjoys finding new approaches to problems both in my artistic practice and in life.

Organisation and Time Management

I am punctual and extremely organised. I am calm in high-pressure situations and can produce work quickly to meet deadlines. I often handle commissions with a fast turnaround.
